2014

TASTING NOTES

Perfectly nuanced balance of fruit, structure and acidity make this 2014 vintage shine. Aromas of black cherry and cola with floral notes lead to a lush palate of ripe cherry, pomegranate, dark fruit, spice and vanilla.

APPELLATION

The Santa Lucia Highlands appellation is California's premier, cool climate wine growing district. Its famed mountainside vineyards set the standards for New World Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. The vineyards of the Highlands are planted on the terraces of the Santa Lucia mountain range, overlooking the Salinas River Valley.
